

Burnt House

The Burnt House was burnt in the fires of 70 AD. It is in the upper section of the ancient city where the wealthy and the priests lived. This house was a residence of a priestly family. It was burned about a month after the Temple and lower city were destroyed. The Romans moved on to destroy the upper portion of the city. This area was excavated 1969-1982. Today this house is set up as a display showing many things from the time of its destruction and the details of the Roman destruction
